NOTICE.
Rooms District Executive Committee
Fayetteville, N. C., July 5, 1880.

There will be a Convention of the Republicans of the Third Congressional District on the 20th day of July, 1880, at Smithville, N. C., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential elector.

LATEST.

Fulton, "the nephew of his uncle" is dead.

Senator Mahone of Virginia has caused a Resolution Hancock and English ticket to be nominated in Virginia.

The rooms of the National Republican Committee are established at No.

241, Fifth Avenue, New York.

There is rumor that Gen. Arthur will resign as chairman of the N. C.

State Committee.

The Republican of the Fourth (Raileigh) District have put in nomination

(William) Moser A. Hildes of Raleigh for member of Congress of that District. He was a few years ago chairman of the Democratic State Committee, but accepts the Republican nomination now, and they all shake their heads around Raleigh, and say that he will give Gen. W. H. Cox a close race.

There are good many sick Democrats around here since the nomination of Fulton and the rest of the ticket at Raleigh.

It was a little curious that Gov.

Jarvis should come down to Burgaw within 30 miles of Wilmington and not give his friends in this city a call.

Was he not invited?

The reason Col. Dockery did not get only 17 votes for Governor in the Convention, was that Mr. Badger, who nominated him had withdrawn his name. This is stated in justice to Col.

Dockery.

The Star has a bee in its bonnet on the subject of Gen. Hancock's anxiety when it says that he is a friend of John Hancock who was president of the Continental Congress in 1776 and signed the Declaration of Independence, in big letters. He died without issue and gave nearly all his property to Harvard College.

GARFIELD AND ARTHUR CLUB

IN PENDER.

Our correspondent sends us a communication from Burgaw, which we regret is crowded out.

The Republicans are alive in Pender and are getting ready to form a GAR-FIELD AND ARTHUR club. They have already held one meeting. The gentleman continues: "I never witnessed more harmony, good feeling and determination to make our great cause victorious on Nov. 3, 1880."

He adds:

Monday, the great "Lam's" so called by themselves, the Democrats made

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CON-VENTION.

Last Day.

JUNE 31st.

The Convention met at about 10

A. M.

The first business was the consideration of the new plan of organization.

We have not at hand a full copy of the report of the committee but will publish it next week. The changes were not very material from the old plan except in minor details, such as the appointment of the state committee by the Congressional Districts, instead of by the chairman of the State Convention, as has heretofore been the practice. The new plan adopted is the same in principle as is usually adopted by the National Republican Conventions.

During the discussion on this subject some member introduced a resolution concerning the committee of the 3d

Congressional District, and the county committee of New Hanover for appointing delegates to Chicago, and to the State Convention. Inasmuch as this had been done by the State

Executive Committee en masse, contradict- ed, in selecting the delegates at large, and by the several Congressional Committees without exception, excepting the 2nd, Congressional District, the Hon. R. C. Badger moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was done unanimously.

The Convention then elected Dr. J.

J. Mott of Iredell and Col. I. J. Young of Wake, members of the State Committee at large.

They also confirmed the election by Districts of the following:

1st Congressional District—A. H.

Hicks of Beaufort.

2nd Congressional District—Marshall Thornton of Warren.

3rd Congressional District—W. P.

Canaday of New Hanover.

4th Congressional District—C. M.

Rogers of Granville.

5th Congressional District—T. B.

Keough of Guilford.

6th Congressional District—D. A.

Jenkins of Gaston.

7th Congressional District—T. N.

Cooper of Iredell.

8th Congressional District—J. B.

Eaves of Rutherford.

The Hon. William A. Moore of Chowan became a member of the State Committee ex officio.

There was considerable discussion during the session, but finally at about 3 p. m. on motion of Hon. W. P. Canaday of New Hanover, three resolutions were given for the National ticket, GARFIELD AND ARTHUR; three for the state ticket of North Carolina; and three for the irrevocable and glorious Republican party. And thus ended the most intelligent, enthusiastic and harmonious convention ever held in North Carolina, by any party. Everybody went away confident and determined that the ticket would carry to triumph and victory in November, and the rights of the people and the interests and honor of the Old North State be vindicated, by the Buxtons, the Barreners, the Norments, the Moores, the Dockers and the Everts, and hosts

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT RALEIGH JULY

7th.

The Hon. R. C. Badger, chairman of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions, reported from that committee the following:

The Republicans of North Carolina,

In Convention assembled, renew pledges made in all their former platforms. And they declare as follows:

1. That they cordially approve the nominations, recently made at Chicago, of James A. Garfield for President, and Chester A. Arthur for Vice-President; and that they will cheerfully and actively devote themselves to their election, as indispensable to the preservation of the Republic, in its integrity. And that they fully endorse the principles set forth in the platform, adopted by the Republican convention, which convened in the city of Chicago, on the 2nd day of June 1880.

2. That they have seen, with great approbation and alarm, the rapid consolidation and engrossment of our railroad systems, by and under the control and ownership of foreign monopolists—that such consolidation of capital gives power to the monopolists to oppress the labor of the country by unreasonable and unjust local tariffs and fares, and gives to them the power to control the legislative branch of government, in the passage of laws in their interest, and rumors to those of the people; and that they have seen with regret, that these monopolists are making an insidious invasion among the leaders of the Democratic party, which culminated on the 17th day of June, in the engorging and swallowing up of the whole Democratic State convention; and that while they have no desire or intention to make an unjust war upon these monopolies, they do demand that the Legislature shall pass laws to govern and control them, so that they shall not be permitted to do violence against our own people, and place a reasonable limit on local tariffs and fares.

3. That they view with anxiety the condition of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which, through the hot house and ill considered contracts of the Democratic state administration, is surrounded by legal troubles, which afford an outlet for taxation, and threaten to delay for a long time, if not altogether defeat, the completion of that work so necessary for the welfare and development of the state, and especially the western counties.

4. That the Republican party has always been the friend of education, and now again renews its pledge to the people of North Carolina, to continue efforts with increased vigor, until there shall be a complete and perfect system of public instruction.

5. That they recognize the mechanic and laborer as the backbone of the land, and pledge their lives to protect their rights and promote their public, educational, and material interests.

6. That the recent constitutional amendments were passed by a convention, which was not composed of a majority of elected delegates, and the constitution of which was stolen from the

The preliminary steps taken by the National Republican Committee, at its late meeting in New York, as well as the selection of its officers, and their well-known character and experience as politicians, means business.

The North Carolinian.—The selection of Hon. W. P. Canaday as the North Carolina member of the National Republican Committee, was a wise one. He is not only a representative Republican, but he is one of the ablest workers and best organizers in the state. The committee meets in New York to-morrow to organize for the campaign.

The Hancock and English ticket is vapory and watery, and rapid, but it is the best dragged about ticket ever heard of. It has less flavoring and more flatness than the ordinary chicky and warm-water that we get at a second-class hotel, or a railroad station. It is, as compared to the pungency of Uncle Sammy Tilden's ticket, as tasteless and unflavored as dishwater, compared to the green turtle soup of Delmonico's.

And yet Alexander the Great, when he had conquered Persia, and all Asia, and the rest of the world and could see nothing more to conquer, was nothing but a common man compared to the Hancock and English ticket, bred out of the larger beer and whiskey and ex-

NOTES ABOUT OUR STATE CONVENTION.

We have been present at all the regular state Republican conventions since reconstruction commenced. The first one held on Sept. 4, 1867, would now be a curiosity if it were to assemble in Raleigh. The improvement of 1880 over 1867 in appearance, is wonderful. The rags and ignorance of 1867 are superseded by fashionably cut coats, stove pipe hats, walking sticks, intelligent faces, knowledge of parliamentary rules, intelligence on questions of politics, and the qualities desirable in a deliberative body. The body which assembled on Wednesday contained able orators, apt parliamentarians, skillful debaters and earnest men, not inferior to any of either party in the southern states.

The dignified common sense with which Mr. Grandy, the chairman of the state committee, welcomed the members, the elegance and eloquence of Col. Young, and the grace, urbanity and accuracy of his rulings as temporary chairman, the massive eloquence with which Judge Moore assumed the chair permanently, in an address worthy of any forum; the indescribable charm of speech and posture with which Geo. B. Everitt nominated Judge Buxton; the incisive reasoning of Mark Erwin; and the constant flow of speech from the body of the hall during the alterations and ferce debates; all these things mark an advancing era in our politics and a growing capacity of the people to rule themselves.

This is a proper opportunity to say a word upon the peculiarities of the situation of Republicanism in our state. Our population covers a territory which is large and diverse in its geographical features. There is a broad difference between the east and the west geographically. So there are among the people differences of habits and conditions. The political modes of the Albemarle and Pamlico are not the same in all respects as those of Ashe or Cherokee. Sometimes what is the interest of one section is adverse to the interest of another. Our Repub-

Mr. W. E. Chandler of New Hamp-

The roll shall be called and the dele-their Chairman, a person to act as a months, prescribe methods or rules for the selection of delegates to the Na-issue the call for the Convention in conformity therewith; provided that such methods or rules shall include and secure the free expression of the views of each state, and shall be subject to the approval of the National Convention. Mr. Chandler followed up the reading of this rule by offering the following proposition, which, on his motion, was laid on the table, to be taken up and considered before the final adjournment of the committee:

COLUMBUS COUNTY.

WHITEVILLE, N. C., July 3rd, 1880.

EDITOR POST:

In pursuance to a call issued by the chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of Columbus County, the delegates elect, from each township, met at the Court House, in Whiteville, this day.

The convention was called to order by the chairman of the Executive Committee, who stated that the election for permanent officers was then in order.

On motion, O. L. W. Smith was elected chairman, Messrs. Lewis Moore and Isaac Baldwin, Vice-Presidents, and Messrs. B. M. and J. A. Spaulding, Secretaries.

The chairman on taking his seat made a few appropriate remarks, and declared the convention ready for business.

On motion, the roll of townships was called, and delegates invited to their seats.

On motion, a committee of one from each township was appointed to draft resolutions, and present the names of delegates to the State, Congressional and Senatorial conventions.

During the absence of the committee, Col. Geo. L. Mabson of New Hanover, being present, was invited to address the convention. Col. Mabson then came forward, and after being introduced by the chair, proceeded to deliver an able and telling speech, showing in an unanswerable argument why all honest laboring men, in fact, all having the good of the country and state at heart should vote for the nominees of the Republican party, and why southern Democrats could not conscientiously vote for Hancock or Jarvis. In conclusion, the speaker urged all to do their full duty in the coming campaign, and to be assured that a glorious victory would be the result in November.

The committee then submitted the following as a list of delegates:

To State Convention—Mr. O. L. W. Smith, with T. M. Smith, Esq., as alternate.

To Congressional Convention—John W. Spaulding and O. L. W. Smith, with Lewis Moore and B. C. McDowell, as alternates.

To Senatorial Convention—B. M. Spaulding and Hanson Gore, with F. Baldwin and York Williams, as alternates.

The following preamble and resolutions were then offered by the committee and adopted:

WHEREAS, After reviewing with pride, as we do, the great achievements accomplished by the Great National Republican Party, in America, especially the suppression of the late rebellion; the liberation of 4,000,000 slaves; and changing them from the position of mere slaves in action to the honored position of American citizens; the complete return of specie payments, and the patriotic and native talent evinced by our late representatives in Congress, in the selection of candidates for President and Vice-President of these United States; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Columbus County, in Convention assembled, do hereby express our hearty approval of the past, vouchsafe for the future, and pledge our united support to the National, State and Congressional nominees of the Republican party.

Resolved, That we do not pledge our delegates to the State and Congressional conventions to the support of any particular individual for Governor or Congress, but instruct them to support the Hon. Ralph B. Buxton for Governor, and the Hon. Wm. F. Canaday for Congress.

On motion, the report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

The convention then adjourned amid three rousing cheers for Garfield, Arthur, Buxton, Canaday and the Republican party.

ANOTHER BOURBON OUTRAGE.

A Second Republican Meeting in Montgomery, Ala., Broken up by Democrats.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Particulars have been received here of the second instance of the breaking up of a Republican ratification meeting that was attempted to be held in Montgomery, Ala. The meeting was referred to in today's Times, but a mistake was made in the day, which was Saturday last instead of Monday. The Republicans of Montgomery endeavored to hold a meeting about two weeks ago, when their assemblage was broken up by Democratic roughs, who pelleted the speakers with rotten eggs and interrupted their speeches with torrents of oaths against the Radicals, alternated with cheers for Hancock. A poor pretense was made by some of the Democrats that they regretted the proceedings, and would endeavor to prevent a repetition of them. A meeting was called for last Saturday evening, June 26; and as objection had been made to holding it in front of a banking house on the public square, a stand was erected opposite African Basin, about 15 yards removed from the spot originally chosen. The stand was decorated with lanterns and flags, and speakers from out of the city had been invited to make addresses. When the speaking began there were about 3,000 persons present, most of whom were Republicans. Soon the crowd was increased by a mob of noisy Democrats, who shouted at the speakers, pelleted them with missiles of different kinds, and finally broke the meeting up with threats of violence to those who participated in it. The main cause of the disturbance, and the leader of the Bourbon ringleaders, was Census Supervisor Kirtland, a ward politician of low degree. Some of "the boys" who had been instructed appeared before Kirtland, and occasionally interrupted the speakers by hurrahs for Hancock and the use of filthy remarks. Kirtland was not satisfied to confine himself to these mean capers. When he appeared in the crowd he called out, "Don't let the Radicals speak." This choice sentiment was repeated by many of the Democrats in the crowd, and several of "shoot them down" were heard. Such an uproar followed that the speakers did not dare to face it, seeing that it would not only be useless but dangerous to do so. It was now about 10:30 o'clock. Some Democrats made a feat of representing the disturbance, and one man rearranged the crowd, declaring that Kirtland was wrong, and that the meeting might just as well be permitted to go on. No injury could be done by such meetings, he said, and the Republicans, for the Democrats could not outvote the Republicans, even if the latter outnumbered them. This sort of talk pleased the crowd. The Democratic Sheriff, James L. Pollard, took the platform, and with an argument substantially to the same effect, made an ineffectual attempt to quiet his turbulent friends. The disturbance once again was made. Census Fort, a "chicken peddler," who showed one rotten egg at a speaker, was hustled off to the police station. It was understood by everybody that this poor wretch was made a scapegoat—that he was pined with drink and then supplied with the rotten egg and instructions, and made an exponent of the sincerity of Democratic assertions about "three speech." He was fined, and the Democrats will probably pay his fine out of the campaign fund. There would have been no disturbance if Kirtland, the Census Supervisor, had not furnished backbone and muscle to the crowd who tried him to commit the outrage.

By Republicans in Montgomery the act is regarded as showing conclusively that if the Democrats once get complete control the very worst elements of the party will rule it, and that without exercising the restraint which they now do. Men who have been regarded as "liberal" Democrats have no control over their brethren. Should they succeed, they will make the south a hell for every man of any tolerance in politics. Men who have lived in the city and tried to make their home there will abandon the idea, and every Republican who cannot and has not refrained from expressing his political opinions will have to leave Alabama and seek a livelihood where the guarantee of liberty is no mere empty phrase.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constipated, sometimes alternate with looseness; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickling sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively diseased.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
